

A Journey through Israel

Jerusalem

Jerusalem, the capital of Israel, is the largest city in the country. It is a mixture of old and new, containing important sites such as the Western Wall, the Knesset and the Tower of David.

Tel Aviv

Tel Aviv is both the cultural and financial centre of Israel and the second largest city. It is located on the Mediterranean Coast and known for its sandy beaches, exciting nightlife and shopping.

Eilat

Eilat is located along the Red Sea at the very south tip of Israel. Warm all year round, it is a great place to sunbathe, swim and see lots of tropical fish.

The Dead Sea

The Dead Sea is the lowest point on earth, 1300 feet below sea level. People here can float in the water, because there is so much salt, and take mud baths too.

Masada

An ancient Jewish fortress, Masada was the site of a stand-off between the Roman army and Jewish rebels. Masada is best visited in the early morning, when visitors can experience a beautiful sunrise.

Haifa

Haifa is Israel's third largest city. Located in a natural bay, Haifa has beautiful views in all directions. The city is built on the slopes of Mount Carmel. Haifa is famous for its port and its business area.
